

Ambulance association celebrates 60th anniversary

CONTRIBUTED

The Southbury Ambulance Association celebrated its 60th anniversary with a reception, dinner and dance Saturday at the Crowne Plaza.

Founded in 1953, the nonprofit, volunteer organization has provided six decades of emergency services and education to townspeople.

The volunteers range from teens to senior citizens. The organization has partnered with Pomperaug High School offer emergency medical technician training classes to students. It also offers a variety of cardiopulmonary resuscitation, first responder, first aid and emergency preparedness classes throughout the year.

Current and former volunteers who attended the event Saturday were Menachem Karolitzky, Eric Cieply, Shayna Cieply, Bruce Pearson, Ross Jantuolo, Geralyn Hoyt, Bonnie Brown, Denise Canale, Bob Gardner, Rob Huenerberg, Burt Cieply, Suzanne Vetter, Judy Lee, Eileen Solis, Wayne King, Alex Cieply, Henry Sahn, Gordon Jones, Dave Eady, Scott Ziegler, Mike Martinez and Joey Biereder.